

Ruggles Street Project Update Survey

Streetscape Art Elements

September 4, 2019

This survey and the plans are also available online @ <https://www.boston.gov/departments/public-works/ruggles-street-project>

Thank you for attending the Ruggles Street workshop! In addition to art pieces to be placed at the Dewitt Community Center and at Tremont and Ruggles (a separate process under the direction of the Arts Commission), there will be smaller-scale art elements woven into the street design. Please take some time to review some examples illustrated on the display board that may be considered here and provide us with your feedback.

What three ideas / elements do you like the most?

___ Thematic Seating

___ Signage with Lighting

___ Flexible Seating

___ Vertical Elements

___ Classic Benches

___ Art integrated into the park fencing

___ Wayfinding Signage

___ Special paving

___ Interpretative Signage

___ Other (please specify below):

Do you have suggestions regarding thematic elements that should be incorporated into the design? These might be people, places, events, historical themes, colors, words, natural or cultural themes, etc.

Do you have any general comments regarding the art elements?
