

INSTITUTION
NAME:

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

FINANCIAL YEAR:

FY 2016

Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners ⁵
1. Dana-Farber Mammography Van	Launched as a joint venture between DFCI and the City of Boston in 2002, the DFCI Mammography Van provides digital screening mammograms and breast health education. Additionally, Dana-Farber operates the Mammography Suite at Whittier Street Health Center based in Roxbury, MA.	$627,782	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going.	Priority populations include women 40 years of age or older, who are low-income, elderly, immigrant, non-English speaking, and those of ethnic/racial and other minority backgrounds. Priority neighborhoods in Boston include Roxbury, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, Dorchester and the South End.	DFCI and City of Boston started this program over ten years ago. We have continued to fund and operate it.	Boston area community health centers and other community based organizations in Roxbury, Dorchester and Jamaica Plain.
2. Sun Safety Education and Screening Program	Provides free skin cancer prevention education and screenings to community residents aboard the Blum Family Resource Van.	$124,393	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	All Boston residents, with the goal of reaching those at highest risk for skin cancer, including beach goers, lifeguards, and outdoor parks and recreation workers.	DFCI	Boston area community health centers, shelters, beaches, houses of worship, and other venues in Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan and Jamaica Plain.
3. HPV and Cancer Education and Mobile Vaccination Program	Provides education to adults and youth about HPV and related cancers as well as access to free HPV vaccinations through the Blum Family Resource Van.	$81,177	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	All Boston residents with a specific focus on Latino and Black communities in Mission Hill, area of Roxbury.	DFCI, Team Maureen and Sociedad Latina	Sociedad Latina, Team Maureen, Boston Public Health Commission and it's network of School Based Health Centers.
4. Tobacco Treatment Program at Whittier Street Health Center	Provides individual tobacco cessation counseling to patients of Whittier Street Health Center who are referred by their primary care provider.	$30,000	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	Individuals who smoke.	DFCI & Whittier Street Community Health Center.	Whittier Street Community Health Center.
5. Dana-Farber/Brigham & Women's Cancer Center Patient Navigator Program	The Patient Navigator Program continues to address cultural, language, transportation, and other challenges as a way to improve timely and effective care for patients seen in the gynecology and breast cancer programs at Dana-Farber and Brigham and Women's Cancer Centers.	$206,701	Both (80% Cash-20% In-Kind)	On-going	Women and men from diverse backgrounds with low socio-economic status, limited English proficiency, disability status, or payment status (uninsured/underinsured) which may serve as a barrier to accessing health care.	DFCI and Brigham and Women's Hospital	Boston-area community health centers and Boston Medical Legal Partnership.

6. Cancer Care Equity Program	The Cancer Care Equity Program (CCEP) was established in January 2012 to reduce cancer health disparities among diverse patient populations by providing streamlined access to education, screening, rapid diagnostic testing, treatment and patient navigation services.	$363,492	Both (90% cash-10% In-Kind)	On-going	All residents of Roxbury and surrounding neighborhoods will have access to cancer-related programs and services.	DFCI and Whittier Street Health Center	Whittier Street Health Center and its network of community-based organizations and local coalitions.
7. Center for Community-Based Research	The Center for Community-Based Research (CCBR) conducts research aimed at cancer prevention and control, with a particular emphasis on the development, evaluation, and dissemination of effective interventions designed to modify behaviors, policies, and practices to reduce cancer risk.	$1,215,434	Both	On-going	Target populations include but are not limited to: racial and ethnic minorities, young women diagnosed with breast cancer and women ages 39-49, labor unions, blue-collar and service workers, patients and journalists.	DFCI	Dana-Farber/Harvard Cancer Center and U-Mass Boston.
8. Community Outreach and Partnerships	As a comprehensive cancer center, Dana-Farber brings education about cancer prevention, screening, early detection and survivorship to residents in priority neighborhoods and supports the implementation of community health improvement strategies led by partnering organizations. Examples of community outreach and partnership activities are described below.	$150,000	Both (20% Cash-80% In-Kind)	On-going	See programs below for specific information.	See programs below for specific information.	See programs below for specific information.
8a. Community Outreach and Partnerships	Madison Park Development Corporation (MPDC): Dana-Farber provides cancer-related education and trainings to residents and supports MPDC's community health improvement agenda.			On-going	Residents living in affordable housing developments in Roxbury	DFCI and MPDC	MPDC Health Equity and Wellness Team and designated Roxbury-area housing developments.
8b. Community Outreach and Partnerships	Faculty-Community Education: Dana-Farber's Community Benefits Office collaborates with providers from the Susan F. Smith Center for Women's Cancers to provide workshops on breast and gynecological cancer prevention to medically underserved women in community settings.			On-going	Women from medically underserved populations, including female inmates, non-native English speakers, immigrants, and women from low income and racially/ethnically diverse backgrounds	Susan F. Smith Center for Women's Cancers	Rosie's Place, South Bay House of Corrections, Boston-area Senior Centers and Housing Development Organizations.
8c. Community Outreach and Partnerships	The Faith-Based Network: The faith-based cancer disparities network (FBCDN) represents nine congregations with over 12,000 congregants, and meets on a regular basis to identify and address health-related concerns pertinent to their congregations.			On-going	Targets health disparities that exist in cancer care and treatment in the faith-based community with a special emphasis on Black church congregations.	Boston Black Ministerial Alliance and 9 area Boston Churches.	Boston Black Ministerial Alliance and 9 area Boston Churches.

8d. Community Outreach and Partnerships	Prostate Health Education Network (PHEN): Dana-Farber and PHEN partner on education, outreach and advocacy efforts and together sustain a prostate cancer support group for men of color that meets monthly at Dana-Farber.			On-going	Racially/ethnically diverse men and members of prostate cancer support group	DFCI	DFCI, community-based organizations, Prostate Cancer Consortium.
8e. Community Outreach and Partnerships	Dana-Farber/Harvard Cancer Center (DF/HCC) Initiative to Eliminate Health Disparities:): Dana-Farber and DF/HCC collaborate and develop programming in a variety of areas to address the unequal burden of cancer in partnership with the Faith-based Cancer Disparities Network and other community based organizations.				Faith-based community, communities of color, and underrepresented minority students.	DFCI	Faith-Based Cancer Disparities Network and community-based organizations.
9. Workforce Development and Community Programs	Dana-Farber partnered with YMCA Training Inc. and other community based pre-employment training programs to identify unemployed and underemployed skilled adults in the community. The experiences included a combination of on-the-job training and classroom learning, career counseling, and other skill building activities.	$403,020	Both (60% cash, 40% In-kind)	On-going	See programs below for specific information	YMCA Training Inc.	See programs below for specific information:
9a. Workforce Development and Community Programs	School Partnerships: DFCI works closely with the following schools:Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy and John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science				City of Boston High School students and graduates.	City of Boston & DFCI	Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy; John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science. Boston Private Industry Council.

9b. Workforce Development and Community Programs	Summer Jobs: During Academic Year 2015-2016, 20 students participated in a college and career readiness training program. An additional 40 students were enrolled during the summer for a total of 60 student interns. Eligible students either attended or graduated from Boston Public Schools. During the 7-week summer program, students interned 30-hours per week and participated in college tours and career readiness workshops. DFCI actively participates in school-to-career programs with the Boston Private Industry Council (PIC). One such program includes Groundhog Job Shadow Day, where students shadow DFCI employees learning about their job responsibilities, as well as the skills and training needed for their position.				City of Boston High School students and graduates. A total of 60 students participated in the internship.	City of Boston & DFCI	Fenway High School; Madison Park Technical Vocational High School – Allied Health and Human Services Academy; John D. O'Bryant School of Math & Science. Boston Private Industry Council.
---	--	--	--	--	--	----------------------------------	--