

	INSTITUTION NAME:	Tufts Medical Center				FINANCIAL YEAR:	2016
Ln #	Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Cash, In-Kind, or Both ¹	1-time or Ongoing ²	Who is Served ³	Program Initiator ⁴	Partners
1	Health Disparities/ Community Health Initiatives	The Asian Health Initiative responds to the health needs of Boston's Chinatown and Chinese communities, who face linguistic and cultural barriers to access and care. AHI addresses health issues disproportionately impacting this community and identified as priorities by the community. Current priorities include chronic disease management and prevention, diabetes, breast cancer, stress reduction, obesity/healthy lifestyles, and smoking cessation education.	$ 265,869.00	Cash	on-going since 1995	Boston's low-income, primarily nonlimited English speaking Asian residents	Institution/ Chinatown community	Asian American Civic Association, Asian Spectrum, Boston Asian: Youth Essential Service, Wang YMCA of Chinatown, Greater Boston Chinese Golden Age Center, South Cove Manor Nursing Home
2	Health Disparities/ Community Health Initiatives	The Dorchester Health Initiative addresses health needs disproportionately impacting the Dorchester community, providing support to neighborhood organizations on a range of health priorities and disparities. Current priorities include youth violence prevention and substance use disorder.	$ 150,000.00	Cash	on-going since 2004	Dorchester residents, emphasis on serving racial and/or linguistic minorities	Institution	Boys & Girls Clubs of Dorchester, Codman Square Health Center, DotHouse Health, Neponset Health Center, Salvation Army Kroc Center, Sportsmen's Tennis & Enrichment Center
3	Health Disparities/ Community Health Initiatives	The Parent-to-Parent Program focuses on improving infant and maternal health and decreasing infant mortality rates, working with low-income, primarily Black, Latino and Asian women regarding pre- and post- pregnancy infant and maternal health, connecting	$ 67,500.00	Cash	on-going since 1992	Low-income, primarily Black, Latino and Asian American women who reside in Dorchester and/or other Boston neighborhoods	Institution	Boston Asian: Youth Essential Service, DotHouse Health, Neponset Health Center them to vital community support resources and adequate medical care.

4	Health Disparities/Community Health Initiatives	South Boston Initiative supports the health care needs of South Boston, focusing on health issues disproportionately impacting this community. Current health issues include substance abuse, pediatric asthma, and Hepatitis C treatment.	$ 250,000.00	Cash	on-going since 2001	South Boston/Boston youth and adult residents	Institution	South Boston Community Health Center
5	Health Disparities/Community Health Initiatives	Long-term residential treatment for individuals suffering from alcohol and drug addiction via Cushing House, which serves young men and women with substance abuse issues who need a stabilizing transitional care residence. Residents have evidence of difficulty with traditional institutions and/or some experience with the court, social service or youth services system.	$ 109,308.31	Cash	on-going since 1999	South Boston/area youth and adults	Institution	Gavin House Foundation
6	Health Disparities/Community Health Initiatives	Support of clinical and health education and outreach programs, including diabetes management, enrolling patients and community members to and understanding health insurance. Emphasis on reaching out to linguistic and racial minorities and public housing residents. Also support capital projects to improve infrastructure, update exam rooms, etc.	$ 280,000.00	Cash	on-going since 2014	South End, Dorchester, Latino, Black , other low-income Boston residents	Institution/South End Community Health Center	South End Community Health Center

7	Health Disparities/ Community Health Initiatives	Peri and post-natal program for at-risk women and babies who receive their care and/or access at Neponset Health Center. Case management, supportive referrals, health education and screenings are provided to all pregnant women to reduce high risk pregnancies.	$ 50,000.00	cash	on-going	Dorchester/ Boston low-income residents	Institution	Neponset Health Center
8	Health Disparities Initiative	The Asthma Prevention and Management Initiative works with the local pediatric community, providing regular educational workshops at the Chinatown public schools to their asthmatic students, for teachers, daycare providers, parents, and local residents, home visits to assess environmental triggers and ensure compliance to medications, and inpatient education.	$ 139,405.58	Cash	on-going since 2006	BPS students, kids participating in Chinatown/South End youth programs, parents, teachers, other care givers/providers	Institution	Josiah Quincy Elementary School, Josiah Quincy Upper School, Boston Public Health Commission, Floating Hospital for Children, community-based organizations
9	Health Disparities Initiative	Tufts Cancer Center's patient navigation program aims to reduce barriers to early diagnosis and treatment of cancers prevalent in the Boston Chinatown and Asian communities. Program activities and strategies designed to remove linguistic and cultural barriers.	$ 155,468.00	Both	ongoing since 2013	Cancer patients	Institution	South Cove Community Health Center, Avon Foundation, Yawkey II Foundation
10	Health Disparities Initiative	Asian Community Based Flexible Support Program provides culturally competent services to Chinese speaking adults. Program assists Department of Mental Health eligible consumers in their recovery efforts and to help secure housing for homeless or those in inadequate housing situations.	$93,817.00	Both	on-going	Low-income, often non/limited English speaking Chinese adults	Institution	Department of Mental Health

11	Health Disparities Initiative	Asian Lung Clinic provides pulmonary care for patients of Asian descent who need the assistance of an interpreter. The program focuses on disease / health education and has developed material for the patients' to use in written Chinese. This program focusses on health disparities for access to health care and disease education among our Asian non-English speaking patients.	$16,848.00	Cash	Ongoing	Non/limited English speaking Chinese adults	Institution	Pulmonary, Critical Care and Sleep Medicine
12	Community Health Initiative	Tufts Women Care at Community Health Centers strengthens relationships with community health centers to ensure the accessibility of obstetrical and gynecological services for patients to promote health especially for pregnant or post-partum patients.	$281,839.00	Cash	on-going	Pregnant and post-partum patients primarily from Dorchester and South Boston	Institution	Neponset Health Center, South Boston Community Health Center, South End Community Health Center
13	Summer Job Creation/ Partnership with Local Schools	Provide summer job opportunities to Boston youth from several Boston Public Schools including Josiah Quincy Upper School in Chinatown and South Boston High Schools, exposing them to healthcare careers and learning opportunities, and keeping them safe and off the streets, supporting youth violence prevention efforts.	$ 70,921.03	Cash	on-going since 2006	BPS students from Chinatown, South Boston, Dorchester, and other Boston neighborhoods	Institution	Asian American Civic Association, Boston Private Industry Council, Boston Public Schools, Boston Asian: Youth Essential Service, Wang YMCA
14	Partnership with Local Schools	Located in Chinatown, Josiah Quincy Elementary School and Tufts Medical Center staff work collaboratively to identify, assess, and treat high-risk children with mental health problems that negatively impact their development and functioning at school and within family. The staff also provides mental health	$ 8,265.00	Cash	on-going	Boston youth, teachers, counselors of Josiah Quincy Elementary School	Institution/Josiah Quincy Elementary School	Josiah Quincy Elementary School trainings for school staff.

15	Job Training Initiative	The Externship Program partners with a number of local schools and training programs in order to provide externship placement for students to complete certificate programs for the following career tracks: Medical Assistants, Medical Administrative Assistants, Health Information Management, Health Claims Management, Phlebotomy, Pharmacy Technician, Surgical Technician, and Biomedical Engineering.	$ 105,618.40	Cash	on-going	Inner-city Boston residents	Institution	Asian American Civic Association, Bunker Hill Community College, Jewish Vocational Services, LARE Training Center, others
16	Job Training Initiative	Support Mayors Office of New Bostonians ESL programs which reach out to the new immigrant communities of Boston.	$15,000.00	Cash	on-going	Non- and limited English speaking new Bostonians	MONB/Institution	Mayor's Office of New Bostonians
17	Community Support	Provide operating and programmatic support for community organization providing open space, exercise/fitness, health education, outreach, prevention and other social services to vulnerable populations.	$319,720.00	Cash	on-going	Low-income, often non/limited English speaking seniors, adults, and their children who participate in various community-based programs	Institution	Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center, Josiah Quincy School Association, Asian American Civic Association, Chinese Women's Association of New England, Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association of New England, Asian American Resources Workshop, etc.
		Total:	$2,379,579					