Plastic Bag Ordinance Inspection Checklist

- Do they have bags?
- Do the bags have handles?
- Is a sign posted for the price within 5 feet of the register?
- Is the price per bag advertised?
- Is the price printed or written on the receipt?
- What kind of bags do they have?
  - Paper bags
    - 100% recyclable
    - Contains at least 40% post-consumer recycled material
    - Labeled as such on outside of bag
  - Compostable bags
    - Says compostable
    - Certified ASTM D6400 standard (BPI)
    - Labeled as such on outside of bag
  - Reusable bags
    - 3.0 mils in thickness
    - Advertised & sold as reusable bags

Results:

- Store complys
- Store does not comply
- Store complys but...

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________