

The Mayor's Office of Economic Development's Back Streets Program helps light industrial and commercial companies grow their business in neighborhoods throughout Boston.

BOSTON'S "BACK STREETS" ARE THE CITY'S BACKBONES FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH & EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES.

The Back Streets Program is a one-stop shop to support your business needs including technical assistance and guidance on:

- Site selection
- Loans
- Zoning
- Permitting
- Entrepreneurship
- Workforce development
- Business expansion and/or relocation

In partnership with planning experts, the Back Streets Program also provides guidance on industrial land use and preservation through the city's comprehensive planning and zoning processes.

If you/your business have questions or concerns related to the Back Streets Program, please contact Adalberto Teixeira in the Mayor's Office of Economic Development: 617-635-5702 or adalbert.teixeira@boston.gov

THE “BACK STREETS” PROGRAM

ASSISTING COMPANIES TO GROW THEIR BUSINESS IN BOSTON

