

Jassie Senwah

Jassie Senwah is a shelter coordinator at the Transition House, a domestic violence shelter, and a domestic violence shelter advocate at Health Imperatives, Penelope's Place. Senwah served for eight years in the Suffolk County District Attorney's office in the Victim Witness Advocate unit, providing comprehensive services and referrals to meet the needs of crime victims beginning at the point of victimization, continuing throughout their involvement in the criminal justice system and beyond. Senwah earned a Masters Degree in Public Administration and MS in Crime and Justice Studies and her Paralegal Certificate from Suffolk University.