

BOSTON CONTRACTING OPPORTUNITY FUND

Industry Types

ELIGIBLE BUSINESSES

An eligible business for the Boston Contracting Opportunity Fund MBE Certified Fund shall be engaged in a line of work for which the City regularly contracts externally. Priority will be given to applicants engaged in any of the following:

I. CONSTRUCTION

Including building construction; heavy construction; mechanical contracting services; water, sewer, and utility lines; concrete, asphalt, and related products; electrical work; street cleaning; excavation, wrecking, and land preparation; roofing, siding, and flooring; landscape services; painting, striping, and marking; windows and doors; insulation, drywall, masonry, and weatherproofing; trucking and moving; heavy construction equipment; plumbing and HVAC supplies; fencing, guardrails, and signs; dam and marine construction; and other construction materials and services

II. CONSTRUCTION DESIGN

Including architectural and design services; engineering; developers and operative builders; construction management; environmental services; transportation planning services; testing and inspection; and other architecture and engineering services

III. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Including IT and data services; human resources and job training services; business and market research services; educational services; advertising, marketing, and public relations; and other professional services

IV. SUPPORT SERVICES

including waste and recycling services; transit services; dining services; vehicle maintenance and repair; equipment maintenance and repair; security guard services; cleaning and janitorial services; security systems services; printing, copying, and mailing; pest control; catering and restaurants; and other services

V. GOODS AND SUPPLIES

Including deicing chemicals; office equipment and supplies; petroleum and petroleum products; vehicle parts and supplies; computers and peripherals; wholesale food products; automobiles; cleaning and janitorial supplies; furniture; industrial equipment and machinery; recreation goods; uniforms, apparel, and linen; engineering equipment and precision instruments; and other goods

