MEMORANDUM

To: Boston City Council

Cc: Mohammed Uddin, Office of Budget Management; Chief Marty Martinez,

HHS

From: William Onuoha, Executive Director, Office of Fair Housing & Equity

Date: May 5, 2021

Re: FY22 Budget Narrative

Department purview: The Office of Fair Housing & Equity investigates housing discrimination, enforces fair housing laws, and develops policies to reduce barriers to housing opportunities in the City of Boston.

FY21 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1. Investigations & Enforcement

As of May 5, 2021 the Office has closed 71 cases, of which 53 (75%) are dual filed with HUD. The Office is on track to meet the case closure numbers achieved in FY20, which was significantly higher than previous fiscal years. The average age of our open, dual filed cases is currently 99 days, which is in line with our goal amount of 100 days set by HUD. This accomplishment is due to good team cohesiveness and goal-driven work on the I&E team. Our FHAP reimbursement grant from HUD at the end of the fiscal year should be similar to FY20's grant amount.

In FY21, the Office partnered with Suffolk Law School to engage in a housing testing discrimination testing project. The goal of the project is to identify housing providers and realtors who engage in housing discrimination, and bring enforcement actions against them. As of May 5, 2021, Suffolk has conducted numerous housing discrimination tests on behalf of the Office, and four Commission-initiated complaints have been opened based on the test results.

2. Community Engagement

During the month of April (Fair Housing Month), the Office gave three virtual housing discrimination trainings in partnership with the Greater Boston Real Estate Board (GBREB). Two of the training were general "know your rights" training aimed at real estate professionals and maintenance workers. The third training was about the history of section 8 discrimination in the city of Boston. These trainings were attended by large audiences, ranging from 140-300 attendees each. The Office has committed to providing quarterly training to GBREB members as part of our outreach and engagement efforts.

The Office has also partnered with the Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance (MAHA) to provide quarterly training to their members taking first-time homebuyer classes. Lastly, FHE is creating a Fair Housing Video that will capture the history of fair housing in the city of Boston and the creation of our department. The video will focus on the past, present and future of the rich history of the Office of Fair Housing & Equity in our city, but also depict landmark issues in fair housing in Boston that have shaped many of our housing laws in Boston.

GOALS FOR FY22

- 1. Increasing Office Capacity: FHE will be using the FY22 caseload management investment to create additional support and capacity for caseload investigation. COVID-19 recovery and the housing of individuals will create a need for the city to respond to housing fairness and equity. Fair Housing is a civil rights matter and FHE has an obligation to direct and create equitable opportunities for housing for all protected classes under M.G.L 151(b).
- 3. Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing: The office has been working diligently with our sister city housing agencies and housing advocates to assess the city's fair housing policies and practices. Which has caused our office to take a closer look and study what the analysis and impediments are to fair housing in the city of Boston. One of our goals for FY22 is to help the city be more intentional about addressing its fair housing deficiencies on a systemic level. To achieve this goal we intend to hire our own third party consultants and organize several community working sessions/ groups to weigh in on this process.
- 4. FHE Education & Outreach: FHE will continue updating all aspects of our website to ensure clear communication of all of our programs. Working in collaboration with HHS Cabinet team, we will continue to develop outreach materials such as infographics, PSA's, webinars series, and a media strategy that will connect residents with the services of the Office.
