On September 13, 2019, Mayor Martin J. Walsh signed an Executive Order Relative to Employee Participation in Marijuana Businesses Seeking Discretionary Approval from the City of Boston (the “Executive Order”).

The Executive Order specifically prohibits a City of Boston employee or the immediate family member of a City of Boston employee from participating in a marijuana business currently seeking or which intends to seek an approval from the City of Boston or its agencies.

By completing and signing this attestation you are certifying to the Boston Cannabis Board that you have reviewed the Executive Order and that no direct or indirect beneficial interest holders in the proposed licensee entity create a conflict with the Executive Order. This attestation must be filed with the Boston Cannabis Board prior to any public hearing regarding the proposed establishment and can be emailed to cannabisboard@boston.gov.
