

READY BOSTON

BE INFORMED, PLAN AHEAD, AND STAY READY!

Visit Boston.gov/emergency for more preparedness resources!

The time to create a household emergency communications plan is now! Take time to sit down to create this plan with your family, make copies, and practice. Put a copy of the plan in each go-bag and emergency kit.

Evacuation Plan

Out of Town Contact Name:

Out of Town Contact Email:

Out of Town Contact #:

---

---

---

---

---

---

Neighborhood Meeting Location:

---

Neighborhood Meeting Address:

---

Neighborhood Meeting Place #:

---

Regional Meeting Location:

---

Regional Meeting Address:

---

Regional Meeting Place #:

---

Family Information – Fill out the following information for each family member and keep updated!

NAME	DATE OF BIRTH	PHONE #	MEDICAL INFO
------	---------------	---------	--------------

---

---

---

---

---

CONTINUE FILLING OUT THIS FORM ON PAGE 2

IMPORTANT PLACES - write down where your family spends most of their time away from home. This could be work, school, daycare, or a friend's house. Remember, many places have a site specific emergency plan; you should familiarize yourself with them.

Places	Address	Phone Number	Evacuation location

Important Information	Name	Phone Number	Policy Number
Medical Insurance
Home/Renter Insurance
Vet for Pet(s)			