Attendees also participated in interactive stations designed to gather community input:

1 BTD Near-Term Improvements

This station showcased a list of planned improvements for Columbia Road scheduled for this year, such as repainting crosswalks and fixing potholes.

2 Community Visioning for Columbia Road

This activity allowed residents to share their ideas and vision for the future of the road and the surrounding neighborhood.

3 Explaining Street Lingo

This station provided clear explanations of common transportation terms and potential redesign interventions. Residents were able to learn about various possibilities and share their preferences with the project team.
