PLEASE NOTE:

The Assessing Department's Board of Review is under no obligation to examine this information in advance of the third quarter tax bill for FY 2026. Accordingly, if a third quarter property tax bill is issued but you believe that the property qualifies for a tax exemption, you must file a timely application for abatement after the FY 2026 tax bill is issued in late December 2025. The Assessing Department will not mail you separate notice of any preliminary decision on your exemption request. The FY 2026 third quarter tax bill will reflect the taxable status of the property. If your third quarter tax bill does not identify your property as exempt then your preliminary request has been denied. If a tax bill is not received, you may request a copy of the bill from the Office of the Collector-Treasurer.
