CIVIC SUMMIT

JERREN CHANG

President & CEO of Partners in Democracy and the co-founder of GenUnity

Jerren Chang is the President & CEO of Partners in Democracy and the co-founder of GenUnity. Together, Partners in Democracy and GenUnity are supporting the civic learning and leadership development of thousands of Massachusetts residents and advancing policies and tools that enable everyday people to access and shape our democratic institutions. Jerren also serves as a board member for the Massachusetts Public Health Alliance and Democracy House. Jerren previously worked in the Chicago Mayor's Office and as a consultant at McKinsey & Company advising public and nonprofit leaders. He holds an MPP & MBA from Harvard University and BS from Duke University.

BOSTON 250 AND BEYOND: A CITY OF FIRSTS, A FUTURE OF POSSIBILITIES' PANEL

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Boston's story is one of bold beginnings — and even bolder futures. Join us for Boston 250 and Beyond, an energizing conversation moderated by Kenny M. Mascary, Interim Chief of Arts and Culture for the City of Boston. This dynamic panel will feature trailblazing leaders shaping Boston's next chapter: Ebony Gill, Founder of Boston Urban Archive; Jerren Chang, President & CEO of Partners in Democracy and Co-Founder of GenUnity; and Isaac Yablo, Senior-Advisor for Community Safety in the Mayor's Office. Together,

CITY of BOSTON

BE THE CHANGE
CIVIC SUMMIT

they will explore Boston's rich and complex history — celebrating its spirit of innovation while confronting the challenges that remain — and share bold ideas for creating a more inclusive, equitable, and vibrant future. As Boston marks 250 years of democracy, discover how today's changemakers are redefining what's possible for the next generation.
