SUMMER GUIDE

Park it with us this summer!

Enjoy FREE concerts, movies, workshops, sports and recreation.

CITY of BOSTON

Mayor Michelle Wu

Parks and Recreation

Dear Friends,

Summer is back in Boston!

Our Boston Parks and Recreation Department works year-round to ensure that our green spaces are clean, beautiful, accessible, and fun for all our residents. And thanks to their hard work—and the generous support of so many of you who sponsor and partner with us in realizing the full potential of Boston's natural treasures—parks and playgrounds across our city will be in full bloom this summer with exciting programming for residents of all ages.

To help you and your family find the best activities near you this summer, I'm excited to share this year's Boston Parks Summer Guide.

Whether you're looking forward to enjoying the longer days and warmer weather with dance, workouts, art, team sports, or live music, we've got you covered. From our Citywide Neighborhood Concerts, Golf Course Summer Concert Series, and the Tito Puente Latin Music Series to our Summer Fitness Series, summer sports leagues, ParkARTS workshops, and family-friendly plays and puppet shows, our parks have something for everyone.

And, for families with young people ages seven to fourteen, our parks in Dorchester, East Boston, Mattapan, and South Boston will be offering free Summer Sports Centers: Drop-off camp experiences five days a week where young people make new friends and develop teamwork and leadership skills learning to play a sport. To learn more and register online, head to boston.gov/sports.

See you out in our parks!
