SUMMER GUIDE

Park it with us this summer!

Enjoy FREE concerts, movies, workshops, sports and recreation.

Dear Friends,

There's nothing quite like summer in Boston! Whether you're strolling in the Public Garden or biking along the Riverway, summer just wouldn't be complete without our city's beautiful parks. Our Parks and Recreation Department has been hard at work to pack our parks and playgrounds with exciting community programming all summer long.

That's why I'm thrilled to share this year's Boston Summer Parks Guide: a resource for you and your family to find opportunities to have fun, get outside, and build community. From workout classes and open mic nights to live concerts and family-friendly puppet shows, there's something for everyone. If you want to get active, come learn how to salsa at our Tito Puente Latin Music Series or take an Afrobeat Bootcamp class as part of our Summer Fitness Series. If you're curious about Boston's natural gems, sign up for a Park Ranger-led tour to explore the Emerald Necklace's waterways and wildlife. And if you're eager to keep celebrating Boston 250, join us for one of our special Revolution 250 movie nights—or catch the Boston Harborfest Fourth of July fireworks show from Christopher Columbus Waterfront Park or LoPresti Park.

For families with kids ages seven to thirteen, we're excited to continue our free weekly Summer Sports Centers at parks in Dorchester, East Boston, Jamaica Plain, Mattapan, and Roxbury. Young residents can also sign up for athletic leagues, sports clinics, ParkARTS workshops, and STEM workshops. None of this would be possible without your support, which helps keep our shared spaces clean, green, and open for everyone. With sunny days ahead, I hope to see many of you out in our parks.

Happy summer!
