The Office of Youth Employment & Opportunity works to employ, develop, and engage Boston's youth. Our goal is to create a future where youth are educated, equipped, and empowered to transition successfully into adulthood.

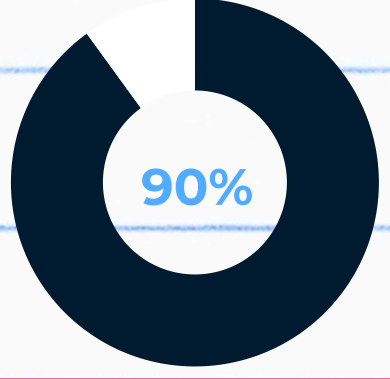

"I learned how to have more confidence in what I say or do. I'm not completely blaming myself when I mess up, I just think to do better next time." - SY 25-26 SuccessLink Youth Employee

AT SUCCESSLINK SITE VISITS, THE ENGAGEMENT AND OUTREACH TEAM SURVEYED YOUTH AND FOUND OUT THAT:

Felt supported by their supervisors & would recommend their SuccessLink job to a friend.

Reported that they were very satisfied with their SuccessLink Job.

"I've learned more about social justice issues in my community and how youth can advocate for change. I've also built skills like communication, leadership, and teamwork while being part of a safe and supportive space for young people." - SY 25-26 SuccessLink Youth Employee
