

The Whitney Hotel is proposing to enclose the existing gate doors with a solid iron panel. The purpose of this modification is to enhance privacy and improve the visual appearance of the area by screening trash and recycling bins from view. The attached picture is an example of what the modification would look like. We respectfully request approval for this project.

Thank you

