

Summit on Accessible Transportation

Tuesday, March 27, 2018
2:00 – 4:00 PM

Boston Public Library – Copley Square

McKim Building, Guastavino Room
230 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA 02116

Steps from Copley T Station – Accessible Entrance is on Boylston Street

We want to hear from you!

- Help shape the Boston Region MPO's Long-Range Transportation Plan
- Provide input on accessible transportation needs and opportunities for people of all abilities traveling in Boston
- Learn about new innovations and speak with transportation professionals, including: The MBTA, The RIDE, WAV Taxis, Uber, bicycle and pedestrian planners, and more!

 DisabilityBoston

 @DisabilityBOS

 @BostonRegionMPO

ASL and CART provided. This is a scent free event.

To request an accommodation or translation, contact us by March 20th at disability@boston.gov or 617-635-3682 / 617-635-2541 TTY.

For more info: www.boston.gov/disability or <http://bosmpo.ctps.org/aact>

To pre-register and request accommodations online, visit

<https://goo.gl/forms/vt6O7ol4yWAndI3x1>

Pre-registration is not required.

