

Orientation Workshop for Foreign-Trained Immigrants

Join us for our New Immigrant/refugee Professionals Orientation Workshop! We bring in experts to provide resources and answer questions to help recent immigrants/refugee professionals to leverage their foreign education, credentials and training to build their careers in the Greater Boston region. Come learn more about how to navigate the U.S. systems, meet other new immigrants, network with established immigrant professionals, and immigrant-serving agencies in the Greater Boston area. Attendance is FREE.

Who will benefit from the orientation workshop?

Immigrants/refugees who have been in the United States for the last three years and have a foreign college degree and foreign work experience

Some of the topics to discussed at this workshop

- Finding a job and build a career in the US
- Pathway programs to the IT, Healthcare, Bioscience and other industries in MA
- Short-term professional trainings and programs designed to be bridges to the US job markets
- How to navigate the US financial, healthcare, immigration and other systems
